

Guy's Gift is a caring organisation that believes...

- The health, safety and wellbeing of all service users, staff and volunteers is of paramount importance;
- No child or young person shall be denied access to the service on the basis of affordability, background or belief;
- Trust, respect and confidentiality are fundamental to the service;
- Diversity and positive qualities in staff and volunteers will be valued and encouraged.

Support for bereaved children and their families in Warwickshire

Our service is available to bereaved families free of charge, in the community, thereby ensuring accessibility for all.

We rely on the support and commitment of the local community

If you would like to support our work, please complete and return this slip.

Your donation – large or small – will help us to make a big difference to a bereaved child's future.

How we work

We discuss openly and frankly with families the issues that can be addressed by our support programme.

The help we provide includes one to one support and may include an invitation to join a group.

Referrals

We accept referrals directly from families and from professionals, with parental consent. We maintain confidentiality in everything we do.

We can be contacted on 0845 467 3035 or by emailing info@guysgift.co.uk

We provide a free support programme for bereaved children and their families throughout Warwickshire.

Guy's Gift responds to the needs of young people in our community who have been affected by bereavement at some stage in their life.

We provide:

- Telephone support
- Assessment of needs
- Individual support for children and young people
- Group support for children and families
- Support and guidance for schools
- Training for people who work with children
